HOUSE RULES

Don't worry about paying your bill, the house is supported by its foundation.

Guests wishing to get up without being called will be served self-raising flour and yeast for supper. Stretchers supplied for short guys.

If the candle goes out, take a feather from the pillow—that's light enough for any room.

Make your will before you retire. Dog-team hearses for hire.

Every known fluid — water excepted—for sale at the bar. There's a spring in the bed.

Boarders in good standing must avoid work of all kinds. Laborers will be charged time and one-half for over-time sleeping.

Guests requested not to flirt with the dumb waiter.

Dogs are not allowed in the bunks. You'll do plenty of howling, yourself.

Spiked boots must be removed when retiring. Hang your socks outside the window.

Candles and hot water are extra. Ice picks for wash basin, free.

Not responsible for pokes, diamonds, liquor, chewing gum, or other valuables kept under pillows—they should be deposited in our safe.

Coollest Igloo North of 53. Dogs Bought and Sold.
Rates: One (New Deal) ounce Gold Dust Per Day.

Dear Harry,

I must see what I can do about your letter of Oct. 4th. The mail is not very fast when it is not sent air mail as you can see. Tell your mother I will take her up on the dinner when I receive said furlough. When I really don't know could be soon and again it could be a long way off. Glad to hear the all is well at your home. I can say the same for my dad and Virginia. About my self I can't say so much I have been in the hospital for nearly a month and still don't know very much. All I know is that I could be better maybe some day I will know more and I hope that it is soon. Why yes I caught some Alaskan salmon and some trout but the salmon at only run about a month. So you see you can't fish very long for them. I really can't say what my gulf is like now I only played one summer and that was in Seattle. Wish I was there once more but why wish for some thing you can't have. So I may wish but it don't do me a bit of good will quit doing it and just wait untill it happens. This fellow writing a letter beside me is giving me a lot of trouble, seems to think my girl friend is not much to look at. But the funny part is that I think she is much nicer than his. This all started because I made him hunt for his shoes this afternoon. Wait until tomorrow must make him look for more

or put him in the dog house.
or some thing along that line.
Well old boy as I can't think of any thing else to write will close for this time.
